As to the tires that are not recappable we are talking about tires that have holes in them ranging from 10 to 12 inches. At the last sale no one would give a price on the used tubes and tire inserts as they are not reusable.

Also to destrey 12 rims that are broken and can't be used.

As to the tires that are not recappable we are talking about tires that have holes in them ranging from 10 to 12 inches. At the last sale no one would give a price on the used tubes and tire inserts as they are not reusable.

Also to destroy 12 rims that are broken and can't be used.
